P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, Health is the most priceless possession of every man, woman and child, and

WHEREAS, a high level of health is vital to the safety, growth and progress of our state and its many people, and

WHEREAS, Americans today are living longer, healthier lives than ever before in history because of the enormous advances made in medicine during our lifetime, and

WHEREAS, physicians, medical scientists, and the dedicated people in the many fields allied to medicine have teamed up to conquer polio, smallpox, diphtheria and other dreaded diseases which once took a heavy toll of life, and

WHEREAS, medicine's endless search for new discoveries and ways to make life free from serious disease or crippling injury is reaching toward even greater heights, and

WHEREAS, the citizens of our state are blessed with many excellent health services and facilities which have resulted from organized community efforts and careful planning, and

WHEREAS, we strive to encourage our communities to have the vision, the essential teamwork and planning necessary to meet and cope with tomorrow's health needs so that the highest level of health protection and service will be available to all;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of November 7, 1965, as

COMMUNITY HEALTH WEEK

in South Dakota, and call upon the South Dakota State Medical Association, allied health professions, public
